

Useful Resources:

Discussing War & Conflict

Below is a list of resources that can be used to discuss war and conflict. Most are in reference to the Ukraine-Russia conflict but can be applied to discuss most global conflicts.

- Gov UK – ALL: Help for teachers and families to talk to pupils about Russia’s invasion of Ukraine and how to help them avoid misinformation. - The Education Hub (blog.gov.uk)
- Choices – KS4: Explaining the Ukraine-Russia conflict: Choices Program | The Ukraine Crisis - Choices Program
- Red Cross – KS4/5: Rule of war: British Red Cross teaching resources : Rules of war
- Global Dimension – KS4: How to approach and link Ukraine-Russia conflict to the curriculum : Ukraine and Russia › Global Dimension

Discussing Digital Resilience

Below is a list of resources that can be used to develop resilience against the risk of radicalisation and other contributing factors to this risk (eg. hate crime, online safety). They have all been Quality Assured from the DfE and are available on their Educate Against Hate platform, along with other great resources. Educate Against Hate - Prevent Radicalisation & Extremism

Primary:

- Votes4Schools – KS2: Are Conspiracy Theories More Dangerous Than We Realise? - Educate Against Hate
- Hammersmith & Fulham – KS2: Hammersmith and Fulham Primary Resources - Educate Against Hate

Secondary:

- The Guardian - KS2/3: Conspiracy Theories in the News - Educate Against Hate
- Votes4Schools – KS3/4: Do We Underestimate the Power of Conspiracy Theories? - Educate Against Hate
- LGFL - KS3/4: Going Too Far? - Educate Against Hate
- No Love for Hate – KS3/4/5 : No Love For Hate - Educate Against Hate