

Settlements

Settlements are places where people live and sometimes work.

They can be small or large depending on how many people live there and how many facilities there are.

Some settlements also have a special use, or function. For example - ports - by a river or sea for ships to transport goods

Tourism

Tourism means people travelling for fun. It includes activities such as sightseeing and camping. People who travel for fun are called "tourists".

Continents

A continent is a large solid area of land. Earth has seven continents. In order from largest to smallest, they are Asia, Africa, North America, South America, Antarctica, Europe, and Australia.

Barge

A barge is a flat-bottomed boat, built mainly for river and canal transport of bulk goods.

Fair Trade

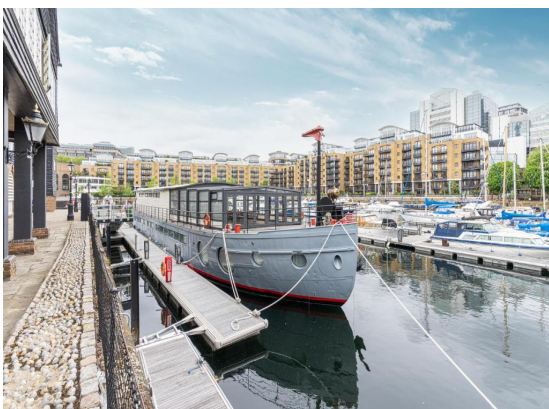

Fairtrade is a system of certification that aims to ensure a set of standards are met in the production and supply of a product or ingredient. For farmers and workers, Fairtrade means workers' rights, safer working conditions and fairer pay. For shoppers it means high quality, ethically produced products.

Developed Countries

A developed country is one that is considered to have a high standard of living, such as: good housing. good education system. longer life expectancy.

Docks

A dock is a structure that's made for bringing boats or ships into the shore and loading or unloading them of goods or passengers.