

United Nations (UN) - a global forum where countries can raise and discuss the most difficult issues, including problems of war and peace.

intergovernmental -
relating to or conducted between two or more
governments.

Forum - a meeting
where ideas and views
on a particular issue can be exchanged.

sustainability - the ability to be maintained at a certain rate or level.

Sustainable Development Goals – a universal call to action to end poverty, protect the planet, and ensure that by 2030 all people enjoy peace and prosperity.

General Assembly –
comprises of all of the member states and is the policy making part of the UN

