

Remarkable Readers...

Underline what the question is asking them to do

Circle key words in the question to find in the text

Constantly refer back to the text when answering questions

Write a full answer, including evidence

Use scanning skills to find the relevant section

Read back over their answer to check it answers the question fully

Check their work carefully - could you be wrong?

Find evidence in the text - point to it!

Include the correct number of points for the question

Use strategies to work out unfamiliar words e.g. read the whole sentence