

Height-The distance from the bottom to the top of something standing upright.

Measure-the size, quantity or amount of something

Tusks-A very long sharp tooth that sticks out when the mouth is closed and is used for digging or fighting (elephants, walruses have these).

Fins-Sticks out from the body of a water animal e.g. a fish and is used for moving or gliding his body through the water.

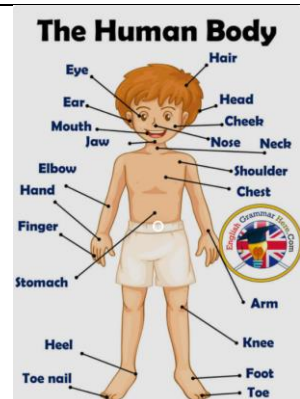

Hooves- the hard tough covering on feet of certain animals to protect to their toes.

Seasons-4 different times during the year with different types of weather.

Human- belonging to a person or people.

Carnivore- An animal which gets food from killing and eating other animals (meat eater).

Herbivore- An animal or insect which only eats vegetation e.g. vegetables, fruit, grass they do not eat meat (plant eater).

Omnivore- An animal that has the ability to eat and survive on both plants and animals.

