

Deciduous means when a tree sheds its leaves annually.

Evergreen is a tree which has green leaves all year around.

Trunk is the thick main stem of a tree.

Branch is a limb of tree where leaves grow on.

Stem is the main structure that support flowers and leaves.

Bulb is an underground mass of food storage from which plants grow.

Roots hold the plant underground and keep it upright.

Petals are colourful leaf like ring around the centre of a flower.

